

I urge you to keep the airwaves free and dedicated to the American people and not some small percentage of the extremely wealthy. The FCC is mandated to protect, not give away, this precious public asset.